

Vice-President Job Description

To assist the President with a variety of matters. Works to stay abreast of current issues at both the local and provincial levels. This job entails meeting with members, filling in for the President when necessary and meeting with the Employer on a variety of issues when/if requested by the President.